

New Lebanon Library
Public Bulletin Board Policy
(Adopted April 2005)

The Library's Bulletin Board exists to provide the community with information about local cultural, educational and civic events. Space is limited. The final decision about whether to post an item, where and for how long rests with the Director.